January 1, 1886
December 31, 1886

Milton Hershey returns to Church Street, Lancaster, Pennsylvania after financial difficulties in New York City, New York. He begins his third confectionery business which will be called the Lancaster Caramel Company. He manufactures caramels under the trademark "Crystal A" (Lotuses, Paradox, Coconut Ices). [Specific date is unknown. Event occurred in 1886.]