August 10, 1900

Lancaster Caramel Company is sold for $1 million to the American Caramel Company. The sale is a combination of cash and stock. M.S. Hershey retains the chocolate manufacturing machinery and the right to manufacture chocolate.