April 27, 1930

M.S. Hershey organizes the Hershey Country Club and offers High Point mansion as the Club House. A golf course designed by noted golf course architect Maurice McCarthy is built surrounding the clubhouse. Mr. Hershey maintains a two-room apartment on the second floor.